DELAWARE SUPERIOR COURT BENCH-BAR PROGRAM

This 16th day of June, 2011:

The Delaware Superior Court Bench-Bar Liaison is a program adopted by the Superior Court on June 2, 2011. The Program establishes two volunteer liaison positions in each county. One liaison will act in civil cases and the other in criminal cases. The liaisons will serve at the pleasure of the Superior Court and will act as intermediaries between Superior Court practitioners and the Resident Judge or appointed Liaison Judge for each county. The liaisons shall serve as a point of contact to address issues between practitioners and the Superior Court, continue the efficacious functioning of the Superior Court, and reinforce the collegiality that is a hallmark of the Delaware Bench and Bar. Practitioners' communications with the liaisons will remain confidential unless the practitioner agrees otherwise. Communications originating from the Court will be confidential among the practitioners involved.

The following contact information for the Bench-Bar liaisons for each county may be listed on the Superior Court's website, the Delaware State Bar Association's website, published in the Delaware State Bar Association's The Journal, or otherwise
