FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE JUNE 2, 2006 SUPREME COURT HONORS KEVIN F. BRADY, ESQUIRE

On June 6, 2006, the Delaware Supreme Court will host a dinner at the Wilmington Club to honor the 135 volunteers who serve on the Arms of the Supreme Court or who serve as receivers in disciplinary matters. These volunteers help the Court regulate the Delaware Bar and the practice of law in Delaware. The Arms of Court are composed of the Board of Bar Examiners, the Commission on Continuing Legal Education, the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection, the Board on the Unauthorized Practice of Law, the Board on Professional Responsibility, and the Preliminary Review Committee of the Board on Professional Responsibility.

At the dinner, Justice Carolyn Berger will present the Andrew D. Christie Pro Bono Publico Award to Kevin F. Brady, Esquire of Connolly, Bove, Lodge and Hutz LLP in appreciation of his outstanding pro bono publico service to the Delaware Supreme Court in furtherance of the administration of justice. The award is named for former Chief Justice Andrew D. Christie and was established by the Supreme Court in 1995 to honor and express the Court's appreciation to an exceptional member of the Delaware Bar for outstanding pro bono publico service to the Delaware Supreme Court in furtherance of the administration of justice. This award exemplifies all that is good, professional and unselfish in the lawyer-statesman. Mr. Brady is the fourth recipient of this award. Previous recipients include Harold Schmittinger, Esquire in 1995; O. Francis Biondi, Esquire in 1998; and Dennis L. Schrader, Esquire in 2001.

Justice Berger stated:

"I'm really pleased that Kevin was selected to receive this very prestigious award. He has worked tirelessly to improve the Delaware legal community through activities such as founding the Rodney Inn of Court, serving on the Board of Directors of the Community Legal Aid Society, Inc. and Chairing the Board of Bar Examiners of the Delaware Supreme Court. The Andrew D. Christie Pro Bono Publico Award is not given out every year. It is only awarded to those who are truly deserving. Kevin is one of those few." Mr. Brady is a native Delawarean and a graduate of Salesianum High School, the University of Delaware, the Masters in Business Administration Program at Widener University and Widener University School of Law. He is admitted to the Supreme Court of Delaware, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania; the United States District Court for the District of Delaware; the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; and the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Brady is a partner at Connolly, Bove, Lodge, and Hutz, LLP in the Corporate and Commercial Litigation Group.
