

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 14, 2014

The Honorable Bradley V. Manning Takes the Oath of Office for Commissioner of the Superior Court of Delaware.

The Honorable Bradley V. Manning was sworn in for his first term as Commissioner of the Superior Court of Delaware on Friday, November 14, 2014 at 3:30 p.m. in Courtroom 8B of the New Castle County Courthouse. Participants in the ceremony included the Honorable Richard R. Cooch, Resident Judge of the Superior Court, and the Honorable Jerome O. Herlihy, retired Judge of the Superior Court, who administered the Oath of Office. Commissioner Manning's children led the Pledge of Allegiance and assisted with the robing. Josette D. Manning, Deputy Attorney General and wife of Commissioner Manning, spoke at the ceremony along with Assistant Public Defender Kevin J. O'Connell, and Public Defender J. Brendan O'Neill.

Commissioner Manning served as an Assistant Public Defender from 2001 until his appointment to the Superior Court. Prior to that, he served in the Department of Justice as a summer intern and Rule 56 student prosecutor. From 1991-2006, Commissioner Manning served in the United States Army Reserve attaining the rank of Captain.

Commissioner Manning received his undergraduate degree from the University of Delaware in 1998. He received his law degree, cum laude, from Widener University School of Law in 2001.

For more information, please contact
Maureen Frederick, Superior Court Administrator
(302)255-0798
Maureen.Frederick@state.de.us