The Honorable Abigail M. LeGrow Takes the Oath of office for Judge of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware

The Honorable Abigail M. LeGrow was formally sworn in for her first term as Judge of the Superior Court of Delaware at 1:30 p.m. on March 18, 2016 in Courtroom 8B at the New Castle County Courthouse in Wilmington.

Superior Court President Judge Jan R. Jurden welcomed the audience to the investiture and Delaware Supreme Court Chief Justice Leo E. Strine, Jr. administered the Oath of Office as Judge LeGrow's husband, Brian, held the Bible. The invocation was performed by the Reverend Brad Hinton of St. David's Episcopal Church and Judge LeGrow's children, Matthew and Hannah, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Following the Oath of Office, remarks were offered by Gov. Jack A. Markell, the Honorable Jack B. Jacobs, Senior Counsel with Sidley Austin LLP and a retired Justice of the Delaware Supreme Court, and Jennifer C. Wasson, a partner at Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP.

Judge LeGrow served as a Master in the Court of Chancery from October 2011 until her appointment to the Superior Court. Before joining the Court of Chancery, Judge LeGrow was an associate in the corporate group of Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP and a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Jack B. Jacobs of the Delaware Supreme Court. She graduated summa cum laude from the Penn State Dickinson School of Law in 2004 where she was the valedictorian of her class and the editor of the Penn State Law Review. Judge LeGrow received her B.A. in Political Science from Susquehanna University.

Judge LeGrow lives in Wilmington with her husband and two children.
