

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

ORDER AMENDING RULE 1.15 OF THE §
DELAWARE LAWYERS' RULES OF § PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT §

Before STEELE, Chief Justice, HOLLAND, BERGER, JACOBS and RIDGELY, Justices, constituting the Court en Banc.

ORDER

This 10 day of June, 2010, it appears to the Court that it is desirable to amend certain rules and requirements pertaining to the Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts Program contained in Rule 1.15 of the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Professional Conduct.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the following changes shall become effective November 1, 2010:

(1) Rule 1.15 of the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Professional Conduct is hereby amended by deleting subsections (a), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) and (l) of the present Rule in their entirety and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

“(a) A lawyer shall hold property of clients or third persons that is in a lawyer's possession in connection with a representation separate from the lawyer's own property. Funds shall be kept in a separate account designated solely for funds held in connection with the practice of law in this jurisdiction. Except as provided in (g) with respect to IOLTA-eligible funds, such funds shall be maintained in the state in which the lawyer's office is situated or elsewhere with the consent of the client or third person. Funds of the lawyer that are reasonably sufficient to pay financial institution charges may be deposited in the separate account; however, such amount may not exceed $1,000 and must be separately stated and accounted for in the same manner as clients' funds deposited therein. Other property shall be identified as such and appropriately safeguarded. Complete records of such account funds and other property shall be kept by the lawyer and shall be preserved for a period of five years after the completion of the events that they record.

(f) A lawyer holding client or third-person funds must initially and reasonably determine whether the funds should or should not be placed in an interest or dividend-bearing account for the benefit of the client or third person. In making such a determination, the lawyer must consider the financial interests of the client or third person, the costs of establishing and maintaining the account, any tax reporting procedures or requirements, the nature of the transaction involved, the likelihood of delay in the relevant proceedings, and whether the funds are of a nominal amount or are expected to be held by the lawyer for a short period of time such that the costs incurred to secure income for the client or third person would exceed such income. A lawyer must at reasonable intervals consider whether changed circumstances would warrant a new determination with respect to the deposit of client or third-person funds. Except as provided in these Rules, interest or dividends earned on client or third-person funds placed into an interest or dividend-bearing account for the benefit of the client or third person (less any deductions for service charges or other fees of the depository institution) shall belong to the client or third person whose funds are deposited, and the lawyer shall have no right or claim to such interest or dividends, and may not otherwise receive any financial benefit or other economic concessions relating to a banking relationship with the institution where any account is maintained pursuant to this Rule.

(g) A lawyer holding client or third person funds who has reasonably determined, pursuant to subsection (f) of this Rule, that such funds need not be deposited into an interest or dividend-bearing account for the benefit of the client or third-person must establish and maintain one or more pooled trust/escrow accounts in a financial institution in Delaware for the deposit of all client or third person funds held in connection with the practice of law in this jurisdiction that are nominal in amount or to be held by the lawyer for a short period such that the costs incurred to secure income for the client or third person would exceed such income (IOLTA-eligible funds). This requirement shall not apply to a lawyer who either has obtained inactive status pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 69(d) or has obtained a Certificate of Retirement pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 69(f). Each pooled trust/escrow account must be established as a pooled interest or dividend-bearing account (IOLTA Account) in compliance with the provisions of this Rule, except those accounts exempted under section (h)(7) below. The lawyer shall have no right or claim to such interest or dividends, and may not otherwise receive any financial benefit or other economic concessions relating to a banking relationship with the institution where any account is maintained pursuant to this Rule.

(h) Lawyers may maintain IOLTA Accounts only in financial institutions that are approved by the Lawyers Fund For Client Protection pursuant to Rule 1.15A of these Rules, and are determined by the Delaware Bar Foundation (the Foundation) to be "eligible institutions". Eligible institutions are defined as those institutions that voluntarily offer a comparable interest rate on IOLTA Accounts and meet the other requirements of this Rule. A comparable interest rate on IOLTA Accounts means a rate that is no less than the highest rate of interest or dividends generally available from the institution to its non-IOLTA customers when IOLTA Accounts meet or exceed the same minimum balance or other account eligibility qualifications, if any. In determining the comparable interest rate or dividend, an eligible institution may consider factors, in addition to the IOLTA Account balance, customarily considered by the institution when setting rates of interest or dividends for its customers, provided that such factors do not discriminate against IOLTA Accounts.

(1) An eligible institution may satisfy the comparable interest rate requirement by electing one of the following three options:

(A) establish the IOLTA Account as the comparable interest rate product;

(B) pay the comparable interest rate on the IOLTA Account in lieu of actually establishing the IOLTA Account as the comparable interest rate product; or

(C) pay the "Safe Harbor Rate" on the IOLTA Account (as posted on the Foundation's website). Until redetermined by the Foundation, the Safe Harbor Rate is the higher of 0.65% per annum or 65% of the Federal Funds Target Rate as of the first day of the IOLTA Account earnings period, net of Allowable Reasonable Service Charges and Fees (as defined in section (h)(5) below). The Safe Harbor Rate shall be reevaluated periodically, but no more frequently than every six months, by the Foundation to reflect an overall comparable interest rate offered by financial institutions in Delaware and may be redetermined by the Foundation following such reevaluation. Upon any such redetermination, the Foundation shall give at least 90 days advance written notice of the effective date of such redetermination to all eligible institutions maintaining any IOLTA Accounts and by posting on its website. Election of the Safe Harbor Rate is optional and eligible institutions may instead choose to satisfy compliance with this Rule by electing instead either option (A) or (B) above.

(2) IOLTA Accounts may be established as:

(A) a business checking account with an automated investment feature in overnight daily financial institution repurchase agreements or money market funds. A daily financial institution repurchase agreement shall be fully collateralized by U.S. Government Securities (meaning U.S. Treasury obligations and obligations issued or guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States government), and may be established only with an eligible institution that is “well-capitalized” or “adequately capitalized” as those terms are defined by applicable federal statutes and regulations. A “money market fund” is an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, that is qualified to hold itself out to investors as a money market fund under Rules and Regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to said Act. A money market fund shall be invested solely in U.S. Government Securities, or repurchase agreements fully collateralized by U.S. Government Securities, and, at the time of the investment, shall have total assets of at least two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000).

(B) a checking account paying preferred interest rates, such as market based or indexed rates;

(C) a public funds interest-bearing checking account such as an account used for governmental agencies and other non-profit organizations;

(D) an interest-bearing checking account such as a negotiable order of withdrawal (NOW) account; or business checking with interest; or

(E) any other interest or dividend-bearing account offered by the eligible institution to its non-IOLTA customers, which is commercially reasonable to use for a pooled account of short term or nominal amount funds.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall preclude an eligible institution from paying a higher rate of interest or dividends on IOLTA Accounts than described above or electing to waive service charges or fees on IOLTA Accounts.

(4) Interest and dividends on IOLTA Accounts shall be calculated in accordance with the eligible institution’s standard practice for non-IOLTA customers.

(5) “Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees” for IOLTA Accounts are defined as per check charges, per deposit charges, an account maintenance fee, automated transfer (“sweep”) fees, FDIC insurance fees, and a reasonable IOLTA administrative fee for the direct costs of complying with the reporting and payment requirements of this rule. Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees may only be deducted from interest or dividends on an IOLTA account at the rates and in accordance with the customary practices of the eligible institution for non-IOLTA customers. No service charges or fees other than Allowable Reasonable Service Charges and Fees may be assessed against or deducted from the interest or dividends on an IOLTA Account. No Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees on an IOLTA Account for any reporting period shall be taken from interest or dividends earned on other IOLTA Accounts, or from the principal balance of any IOLTA Account. Any fees and services charges (other than Allowable Reasonable Service Charges and Fees deducted from interest on an IOLTA Account), including but not limited to bank overdraft fees, wire transfer fees, remote deposit fees and fees for checks returned for insufficient funds, shall be the sole responsibility of, and may be charged to, the lawyer or law firm maintaining the IOLTA Account. Nothing in this Rule shall prohibit a lawyer or law firm maintaining an IOLTA account from recouping fees charged to their IOLTA account from the appropriate client on whose behalf the fee was incurred and as otherwise provided for in the Rules of Professional Conduct .

(6) Lawyers or law firms depositing client or third party funds in an IOLTA Account under this paragraph (h) shall direct the eligible institution:

(A) to remit interest monthly, or, with the consent of the Foundation, quarterly (net of any Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees), computed on the average monthly balance in the account or otherwise computed in accordance with the institution's standard practices, provided that the eligible institution may elect to waive any or all such charges and fees;

(B) to transmit with each remittance to the Foundation a report in a form and through any reasonable manner of transmission approved by the Foundation showing the name of the lawyer or law firm on each IOLTA Account whose remittance is sent, the IOLTA Account number for each account, the amount of interest attributable to each IOLTA Account, the time period covered by the report, the rate of interest or dividend applied, the amount and type of Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees deducted, if any, the average account balance for the period for which the report was made, the net amount of interest remitted for the period and such other information as may be reasonably required by the Foundation; and

(C) to transmit to the depositing lawyer or law firm a statement in accordance with normal procedures for reporting to depositors of the eligible institution.

(7) Any IOLTA account which has not or cannot reasonably be expected to generate interest or dividends in excess of Allowable Reasonable Service Charges or Fees, may, under criteria established by the Foundation, be exempted by the Foundation from required participation in the IOLTA program. Exemption of an IOLTA account from the IOLTA program revokes the permission to use the Foundation's tax identification number for that account. The lawyer or law firm whose account has been exempted will annually certify to the Supreme Court, as part of its Annual Certificate of Compliance, that the lawyer or law firm expects no material increase in activity in its exempted trust/escrow account during the 12 months following the date of the filing of the Certificate. The Foundation will review exempted accounts and may revoke the exemption if it determines that the account can generate interest or dividends in excess of Allowable Reasonable Service Charges and Fees.

(8) In order for the Foundation to be able to determine that all pooled trust/escrow accounts are properly identified by the eligible institutions, each lawyer or law firm that maintains a pooled trust/escrow account is deemed to have authorized the Foundation to have access to the pooled trust/escrow account-related information contained within its Annual Certificate of Compliance, filed annually with the Supreme Court. In addition, when a lawyer or law firm requests an eligible institution to open an IOLTA account, the lawyer or law firm will submit the request in writing to the institution, using the designated form letter located on the Foundation's website, with a copy of said letter to be sent to the Foundation by the lawyer or law firm.

(9) Should the Foundation determine that an IOLTA Account of a financial institution has failed to comply with the provisions of this Rule, the Foundation shall notify the affected lawyer or law firm and the financial institution of such failure to comply, specifying the corrective action needed, with a reasonable time specified by the Foundation for the compliance to be achieved, but no longer than 90 days. Should compliance not be achieved within the time specified, the Foundation shall notify the affected lawyer or law firm, the financial institution and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel.

(i) The funds transmitted to the Foundation shall be available for distribution for the following purposes:

(1) To improve the administration of justice;

- (2) To provide and to enhance the delivery of legal services to the poor;
- (3) To support law related education;
- (4) For such other purposes that serve the public interest.

The Delaware Bar Foundation shall recommend for the approval of the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware, such distributions as it may deem appropriate. Distributions shall be made only upon the Court's approval.

(j) Lawyers or law firms, depositing client or third party funds in a pooled trust/escrow account under this paragraph shall not be required to advise the client or third party of such deposit or of the purposes to which the interest accumulated by reason of such deposits is to be directed.”

(2) Rule 1.15 of the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Professional Conduct is hereby amended by redesignating subparagraph (m) of the present Rule as subparagraph (k).

(3) The Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit forthwith a certified copy of this Order to the clerk of each trial court in each county.
