Kevin Carroll named as Deputy Court Administrator

The Delaware Judiciary has named Kevin Carroll, Esq. as Deputy State Court Administrator at the Delaware Administrative Office of the Courts.

Before joining the Administrative Office, Kevin worked as Vice President and Assistant General Counsel for JPMorgan Chase & Company, based in their Wilmington offices. From 2006 until 2014, Carroll was a Deputy Attorney General with the Delaware Department of Justice.

As a prosecutor, Kevin started in the Appeals Division, writing briefs and presenting oral arguments before the Delaware Supreme Court, before moving to the Misdemeanor Trial Unit and then the Felony Trial Unit, where he handled the prosecution of violent felonies including homicide cases. He concluded his time at the Attorney General's office with the Consumer Protection Unit, where he handled fraud and consumer protection cases statewide.

Kevin graduated from Rutgers University with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and French. He earned his law degree at Widener University School of Law where he graduated magna cum laude. At Widener, he was a Wolcott Fellow Law Clerk for the Honorable Henry DuPont Ridgely.

Before embarking upon his legal career, Kevin served honorably as an officer in the United States Marine Corps, where he was deployed to the Middle East during Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

At the Administrative Office of the Courts, Kevin joins the leadership team under State Court Administrator Amy Quinlan and will be in charge of overseeing legal matters along with other administrative and supervisory duties.

Kevin is married with two children and is an avid, if not very successful, golfer. He identifies New Hampshire as his "happy place" and, as the father of two children, he said he dearly misses his days as a prosecutor when he used to be able to get a word in edgewise.
