

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
UPDATE
March 20, 2020

Follow up on precautionary closure of Georgetown Family Court Courthouse
Employee found not to have COVID-19.

Following up on the press release that was sent out earlier today, we can report that the employee who was suspected of having COVID-19 at the Georgetown Family Court Courthouse this morning, leading to a precautionary closure of the facility, has now been determined not to have COVID-19. The symptoms displayed at Family Court were due to an unrelated health condition.

The precautionary measures that were put into place are now being lifted.
