Superior Court Form 30 In accordance with Superior Court Civil Rule 5(b)(1)

Form 30. Interrogatories to be answered by a personal injury litigation party.

telepriori	name and present or last-known residential and employment address number of each eyewitness to the incident which is the subject of the liti name and present or last-known residential and employment addresse number of each person who has knowledge of the facts relating to the liti litigation	names of all persons who have been interviewed in connection with the including the names and present or last-known residential and emplo and pres	s and telephone numbers of the persons who made said interviews and the ent or last-known residential and employment addresses and telephone not who have the original and copies of the interview.
and pres	ent or last-known residential and employment addresses and telephone nu prese by sa	the name, professional address, and telephone number of all expert witnesses ently retained by the party together with the dates of any written opinions prepared id expert. If an expert is not presently retained, describe by type the experts whom earty expects to retain in connection with the litigation.

	a brief description of any insurance policy, including excess coverage, that is or may oplicable to the litigation, including:
a)	The name and address of all companies insuring the risk;
b)	The policy number(s);
c)	The type of insurance;
d)	The amounts of primary, secondary, and excess coverage
Give by psych	itional interrogatory to be answered by a personal injury litigation plaintiff only) the name, professional address, and telephone number of all physicians, chiropractors, nologists, and physical therapists who have examined or treated you at any time during en year period immediately prior to the date of the incident at issue in this litigation.