

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 27, 2018

The Honorable Sheldon K. Rennie takes the Oath of Office as a Judge of the Superior Court

The Honorable Sheldon K. Rennie was publicly sworn in for his first term as a Judge of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware at 3 p.m. on April 27, 2018 in Courtroom 8B at the Leonard L. Williams Justice Center in Wilmington. Judge Rennie replaces the Honorable M. Jane Brady who retired in December.

Superior Court President Judge Jan R. Jurden welcomed the audience to the investiture and the invocation was offered by Pastor Rick Hensley of Grace and Truth Community Church. Judge Rennie's children then led the Pledge of Allegiance, and he was later assisted by his parents for the official robing.

Court of Common Pleas Chief Judge Alex J. Smalls administered the Oath of Office as Judge Rennie's wife held the Bible. Following the Oath of Office, Gov. John Carney, Chief Judge Smalls, Emilie Ninan, Esq. of Ballard Spahr LLP and Judge Rennie's daughter offered remarks.

Prior to being nominated to the Superior Court, Judge Rennie had been a Judge on the Court of Common Pleas for five years.

Prior to joining the bench, Judge Rennie was partner at Fox Rothschild LLP and was an Adjunct Professor at the Villanova University School of Law.

A graduate of Villanova University School of Law, Judge Rennie received a B.A. and M.S. in criminal justice from Long Island University.
