

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 5, 2018

THE COURT OF CHANCERY ANNOUNCES A NEW MASTER IN CHANCERY

The Court of Chancery is pleased to announce the appointment of Selena E. Molina as a Master in Chancery. The Masters adjudicate cases assigned to them by the Court and play an important administrative role in ensuring that the Court handles its case load in a timely manner, particularly in the sensitive areas of trusts and estates and guardianships.

Mrs. Molina comes to the Court of Chancery from her position as an associate attorney in the Litigation Department of Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr. She previously worked in the Litigation Department of Richards, Layton & Finger. Mrs. Molina also served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable William C. Carpenter, Jr. of the Delaware Superior Court and a Wolcott Fellow to the Honorable Randy J. Holland of the Delaware Supreme Court.

Mrs. Molina graduated magna cum laude from Widener University School of Law and earned her Bachelor's degree from Widener University, graduating summa cum laude.

Chancellor Bouchard commented on the selection of Ms. Molina: "Selena has distinguished herself for her work ethic, legal ability, mature judgment, and active involvement in our Bar and the community at large. She has demonstrated a passion for public service and we are fortunate she stepped forward to undertake the responsibilities of this important position. All the members of the Court look forward to the opportunity to work with Selena, and are confident that she will distinguish herself as a Master of the Court in the years to come."

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT
Karlis Johnson
Court of Chancery
302-255-0550