

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARCH 29, 2019

The Honorable Janine M. Salomone takes the Oath of Office as a Commissioner of the Superior Court

The Honorable Janine M. Salomone was publicly sworn in as a Commissioner of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware at 3 p.m. on March 29, 2019 in Courtroom 8B at the Leonard L. Williams Justice Center in Wilmington. Commissioner Salomone replaces the Honorable Bradley V. Manning who now sits on the bench of the Court of Common Pleas.

Superior Court President Judge Jan R. Jurden welcomed the audience to the investiture and Commissioner Salomone's daughter then led the Pledge of Allegiance, and she was later assisted by her husband for the official robing.

President Judge Jurden administered the Oath of Office as Commissioner Salomone's daughter held the Bible. Following the Oath of Office, Retired Judge Robert B. Young and Brigette V. Fresco, Esquire offered remarks.

Prior to being nominated to the Superior Court, Commissioner Salomone spent 19 years in private practice, most recently as a partner at the law firm of Potter Anderson & Corroon, LLC.

A graduate of Dickinson School of Law, Commissioner Salomone received a B.S. summa cum laude from the Pennsylvania State University.
