

The Delaware Court of Chancery and the Court of Chancery Historical Society Present

The 3rd Annual Legal History Art Contest Open to Delaware Students in Grades 7 through 12

First Place Prize: $500

Second Place Prize: $300

Third Place Prize: $200

In 1952, in the cases Belton v. Gebhart and Bulah v. Gebhart, the Delaware Court of Chancery ordered the integration of an elementary school and a high school that previously had been segregated.

In 1954, the United States Supreme Court affirmed that desegregation decree as part of the landmark case known as Brown v. Board of Education.

We invite you to use your imagination to create art depicting your impression of these important court cases.

A reception and awards ceremony will be held to honor the winners.
